Law-Specta dinan-from our Regular Correspondent. From our Regular Correspondent. Washington, Wednesday Dec. 23.

In SENATE, to-day, petitions were presented against the repeal of the Bankrupt Law, by Messrs. TALLMADGE, CRITTENDEN, WOODBRIDGE, PORTER, ARCHER and BERRIEN, mostly from New-York by Mr. McRoberts, from citizens of Illinois.

and Pennsylvania, -and one in favor of its repeal, Mr. McRoberts presented the credentials of SIDREY BREESE, Senator elect from Illinois for the term of six years from the 4th of March next.

The resolution of Mr. WOODBURY calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for information as to the amount of Revenue received from Customs during the fourth quarter of the present year was Bills to allow drawbacks on goods experted in original packages to Chihuahua and Santa Fé in Mexico, and authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to compromise with the sureties of Saml. Swartwout, were ordered engrossed.

A great number of private bills from the House were read twice and appropriately referred.

The Senate adjourned. In the HOUSE Mr. CAVE JOHNSON, on leave, introduced a bill to prohibit extra allowances to any officer of the Government. Mr. J. wished the bill now engrossed, but it was objected to by Mr. ARNOLD, who said he had a bill before the House on a similar subject (for the reduction of pay of members, &c.) and he wished them to go together. On his motion the bill was referred to the Committee of the Whole on the Union.

On motion of Mr. FILLMORE five thousand extra copies of the document from the State Department, (yesterday laid before the House,) exhibiting the changes in the Tariffs of foreign nations, were ordered printed.

On motion of Mr. EDWARDS of Mo. a Select Committee was appointed to inquire into the expediency of locating an agent for the purchase of water-rotted hemp in Missouri.

On motion of Mr. ROOSEVELT, a resolution was adopted inquiring of the Secretary of the Treasury what portion of the revenue received since 1st July last was in cash duties, what from bends previously given, &c.

Mr. T. B. King, of Georgia, moved the appointment of a select Committee of five to isquire into the expediency of employing iron steamers for the transportation of the mail on the lakes and the Mississippi, and also for use in the Navy, &c.

Mr. ADAMS said the subject was now before the House in another form, During the last Session a proposition had been laid before them from the French Government for the employment of iron steamers for the transportation of the mail between the two countries, and had been reported on favorably by the Committee on Foreign Affairs. A resolution of the House called on the Department for the probable expense of carrying this plan into operation, and an answer was soon expected. Under these circumstances he deemed the proposed action inexpedient at present.

After some further remarks the resolution was adopted.

Mr. ADAMS moved that the House resolve itself into Committee of the Whole, for the purpose of taking up the bill for the satisfaction of claims for indemnification for French spoliations prior to 1800; negatived, Yeas 88, Nays 99. The bill to repeal the Bankrupt Act was then again taken up. Mr. Thompson of Ia., devoted his hour to a re ply, with his usual eloquence, animation and ability, to the speech of Mr. Cushing of yesterday. He said that both of the two great parties in this House had come together at this Session to lay aside party conflicts and devote themselves to the urgent and pressing business of the nation; and to throw firebrands among them, that public interests might be neglected and the Whigs, having a majority on this floor, be again held responsible for it. Mr. T. said this was the first time in the history of this Government where an acknowledged organ of the Administration had stalked boildy into the Representatives. Hell and hold. that Mr. Cushing, one of the peculiar friends of boldly into the Representatives' Hall and held up the spoils of office and the patronage and power of the Administration to the highest bidder. The gentleman had said (and boasted over it) that the Whig party were destroyed; that they had knocked out their brains against the established, self-evident fact which existed in the Constitution-against the veto power, and this being the case, that it was the solemn and responsible duty of the President to look around and see if he could gain the support of the party now in the minority. Mr. T. commented with great severity, and much more ability and power than can be justly represented in any analysis of his remarks, on this entire and now openly avowed prostitution of the veto power, the power of removals and appointments to office, and all the patronage of Gove nment to mere party purposes-to 'enabling the Administration to be felt in the contest of 1844; and said that this accumulation of power in the hands of the President, as an instrument of gratifying the most ruthless and selfish ambition that could operate on the mind of man, far exceeded its accumulation in the hands of Jackson and Van Buren, against which Mr. C. had so loudly remonstrated. The gentleman had put up to the highest bidder the Administration; he had by authority made proposals to the Loco-Foco party, and it remained now for the Country to see whether this alliance, so long shadowed forth, was to be consummated, &c. &c.

Mr. P.'s speech was replete with interest, and exhibited in a masterly style the vascillations, weaknesses, favoritism and corruptions of the present Administration in its desperate efforts for perpetuating its power. But a very imperfect idea can be given of it in the limits of this letter.

Mr. EVERETT obtained the floor over many competitors, and after stating that although this debate was of great interest, it might be continued on some other bill, moved the previous question.

The second to this motion was refused almost by acclamation. Mr. KENNEDY of In. next obtained the floor and spoke at some length in favor of the repeal, in denunciation of the Whig party, &c. Mr. Wise obtained the floor and the House ad-

Chairman Lecture Committee. W Orlando Fish, rashionable Hauer, 137 Eroad way, would inform the gentlemen of New-York that his Fall and Winter style of Hats is now ready for their inspection and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMERICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our cumate and manners, he rejoices to perceive that others have seen fit to follow his lead, and that now the following of European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers.

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats at $3.50, and warrants them lequal in material, finish, fashion and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city. But he wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are not sold at this price, but at $4.50. These he recommends as equal to any but sold in New-York at $5 or under, and Gentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call engages for them a comparison with any other.

Gentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Winter hats and judge of their quality. He is confident that, whether the chempet or the best Hat is desired, the inquirer will here be satisfied. Try him.
